MORGANTOWN.

Rabbits are said to be a little scarce around here.

W. S. Brittain is home after several days' visit with friends down in Robinson county.

Elder Rice, Pastor of the Beasley Church, preached here last Sunday to a large congregation.

Mrs. Nancy Berry and daughter Miss Amanda of near Springdale returned home last Monday after a pleasant visit with Mrs. Berry's sister, Mrs. Kate Hoffman.

The Postmaster and D. D. Pickett of this place are in it as big as a cow. If Harrison is elected D. D. pays twenty cents for ten Public Ledgers. If Grover gets there the papers are paid for.

The writer will remember when Claud Tucker of near Stonesboro would take his dinner and start to school every morning and stay in the woods all day, returning home at night. And now he comes here on Sunday evenings and don't go home at night. Go in Tucker.

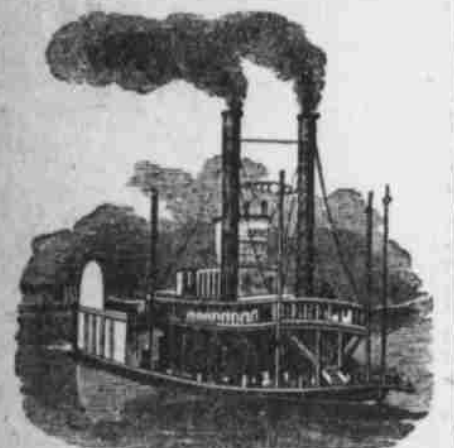

Misses Nellie, Stella and Maud Downing and Nannie Wells visited the new M. E. Church at Mayfield Sunday, and heard Rev. Reeves preach the dedication sermon. They took their dinner with them. When they got back to this place they spread out the good things and had plenty to feed fifteen hungry men.

Miss Maud Downing is moving along nicely with her school in the bottom. She has thirteen scholars enrolled and they all love their teacher. The following persons have visited her school: Mrs. Thomas Downing, Mrs. Cynthia Schott, Mrs. Jennie Moran, Mrs. Charles Peers and son, Miss Millie Robinson and last but not least, two young gentlemen from Sardis.

STEAMBOAT MATTERS.

WHAT IS GOING ON ALONG THE BEAUTIFUL OHIO RIVER.

Driftwood Gathered on Shore and Stream by The Ledger's Weather-Beaten Old Tar and Piled Up Ready For Use.

Several towboats laid up for three months along the upper Ohio may reach Pittsburgh on the swell.

The coming cold wave, if it materializes, will knock in the head all prospects of a rise for the present.

One hundred tons of old iron and rubbish were taken from the river channel under the Chesapeake and Ohio bridge at Cincinnati last week.

Procure It Before Leaving Home.

Three years ago, while I was visiting relatives at Higginsville, Mo., I was suddenly taken with colic and severe pains in the stomach. My relatives sent to the Doctor for medicine, and he sent me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, telling the bearer that if that medicine did not cure me he could not prescribe anything that would. I used it and was immediately relieved.—Henry A. Thofner. For sale by Power & Reynolds.

Decided Against the Auditor.

The World's Fair Commissioners scored a decided triumph in the contest with Auditor Norman before Judge Montfort in the Franklin Circuit Court Saturday. Before going into court they tried to induce the Auditor to exhibit some public spirit and state pride by allowing the case to be an agreed one to the extent that the question at issue should be the liability of his bondsmen, and not the constitutionality of the law granting the appropriation. This he refused to do. The court sustains the demurrer of the Commissioners and orders the Auditor to issue the warrants required, holding that the constitutionality of the act is not at issue, and basing his decision on the grounds which the attorneys of the Commissioners first sought to arrange with the Auditor. The Auditor, who has thus given a direct slap in the face, at once appealed the case, and claims that in the higher court he will get a decision based upon the constitutionality of the act.

The Emerson Piano.

The Emerson Piano Company of Boston, Mass., and 92 Fifth Avenue, New York, have had a long and successful experience in the manufacture of pianos, and have attained an enviable reputation. These pianos are of the very finest tone and of the best material and workmanship, and are sold at moderate prices and on reasonable terms. As a general thing a person buys a piano but once in a lifetime, and it is, therefore, very important that the instrument should combine as many desirable features of a permanent character as possible. Manufacturers of good reputation and of long standing should be the favored ones. The Emerson Piano Company have made and sold upward of sixty thousand pianos; and they warrant every instrument sent from their factory. They will send to any of our readers who may be thinking of purchasing a piano, their illustrated catalogue free of charge; and it will be found to be an interesting publication.
